Almost half of marriages today end in divorce. But the symptoms of a struggling marriage start long before that. These symptoms can sound like:

- › "I know our marriage has problems, but I don't know what to do..."
- › "I want to feel connected to my spouse – like how we were when we were dating or first married..."
- › "I thought marriage would be different than this – I thought we'd be happier and not fight so much..."

These feelings are common, and when left unchecked, they can leave any couple frustrated and feeling defeated.

So, what are you to do?

First, know that it's not your fault you don't know what to do.

The answer isn't found in a self-help book, marriage retreat, or even traditional marriage counseling. All of these tools are great at telling you WHY you're struggling, but they do very little to actually save your marriage.

The answer is learning less about marriage and more about how to DO marriage. It's learning new skills that help you create a healthy, mature relationship – one that's restored, filled with love, and full of peace. It's consistently practicing simple steps to get that healthy, thriving marriage you always wanted.

We'll cover that, and more, in this free five-day event. In it, you'll learn...

1. The most important and overlooked "third" part of your marriage
2. The 4 protectors of "us" (you and your spouse)
3. How love can fail you and why you should value instead
4. Why your individuality is strengthened when "us" is strengthened
5. How to create a healthy marriage where you feel connected, happier, and thriving
